TUBEROUS BEGONIAS

YOU'VE ADMIRER FOR A LONG TIME

Here is a group of Tuberous Begonias that have been favorites of American Gardeners for many years. While these do not replace the newer American Hybrids any more than they replace these sorts, we feel that we must offer a full selection of both if we are to follow our policy to supply ALL the desirable Tuberous Begonias. You will find a full listing of the outstanding American Hybrids in another folder in this set. It's convenient to get these all from the same source.

Harold's Pedigreed Imported Hybrids

CARNATION FLOWERED GIANT DOUBLE

The Carnation Type Tuberous Begonias have been very popular among the fanciers. The flowers are almost as large as the Camellia type but have a frilled and lacinated form that closely resembles huge florist carnation blooms. Truly these are a must in any representative Begonia Collection.

HANGING BASKET LLOYDI: SMALL FLOWERED DOUBLE

This Pendula Lloyd group is one of the finest hanging basket subjects. Flowers are of all-double form, cactus type. Runners are long and heavily covered with flowers. More sturdy than the Camellia Pendula type, these will do well under less favorable conditions and are less affected by bloom drop. These also make a very showy plant in window boxes and on shaded banks or terraces in the rock garden. These should be ordered at once as supply is not plentiful.

	Price Per	3	6	12	25
RED: Brilliant luminous shade		$1.25	$2.25	$4.25	$ 8.25

CAMELLIA FLOWERED GIANT DOUBLE

This Camellia Flowered Double group has long been the mainstay of the Tuberous Begonias. Probably 70% of those seen are from this group or have been until the recent introduction of the new Giant Double Ruffled selections these past 5 or 6 years. They are quite robust and of easiest culture. For the beginner they are a good choice. They are also economical in price.

HARROLD'S PEDIGREED FANCIERS BLEND

These have been an exclusive specialty with us, being a blended mixture, about half from better varieties of commercial listings in this list and the balance selected tubers from breeding work. These latter ones come in many forms and novelties that have not been put into commercial production yet. An ideal source of new types for the hobbyist's collection of different specimens. Popular.

PROPAGATING GRADE TUBERS - Mixtures

Favorable growing this season at the Calif. Ranch cut short the supply of these Propagating Grade tubers. Their popularity has grown every year so we suggest ordering what you want at once. This year, for the first time we offer the New Improved American Hybrid types in this economy grade.

Tubers are $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 inch diameter. Although they produce fewer flowers than the larger tubers, quality and size is excellent. They bloom more freely than seedling plants usually sold mail-order and these varieties are much improved over cheap imports. We supply each type separate but in mixed colors only.

	PRICE PER	10	25	50

TUBEROUS BEGONIA SEEDS -

Growing Tuberous Begonias from seed is an interesting project and if you are a somewhat advanced type of gardener you should have little difficulty and enjoy the experience. Planted in Febr. or early March plants can be brought to bloom in Aug. Later planting will produce nice tubers for planting next year and from these later seedlings will come plants you have the best chance of blooming in the greenhouse early next winter when tuber plants are entirely out of season. We list here all of the seed we can supply so don't order tuber varieties not listed.

About Substitutions

Maintaining so extensive a line as ours throughout the entire season is impossible. We therefore suggest that you order just as early as you can. All orders will be shipped as given as long as stock is available. However, it is often possible to substitute size or even items with complete satisfaction. Wherever this is possible, we will do so unless you specifically state at time of ordering that this procedure is not acceptable.

BEGONIA SEEDS - Fibrous Rooted Types.

We supply only seeds of these varieties and then only in the packet items specifically listed. They are quite easily grown by gardeners of modest experience and make most desirable bedding plants for beds or low borders or as pot plants in the house. When potted they form a compact, well formed, low growing plant that is nearly constantly covered with the bright flowers. The foliage itself is beautiful. Plant some of these this spring to grow into gift pots to give to your friends next fall and winter. They'll enjoy them.

CONNOISSEUR'S BLEND

Novelty Begonias

A most unusual offering in Begonia Seeds is made in this specially blended mixture. As you know seeds of many Begonias are hard to come by and some are rarely available. We have blended here the seeds of many varieties from many sources. These include Rex, Tuberhybrida, Semperflorens, Metallica and several hybrids. A packet of these seeds should produce a hundred plants or more and will add much to your Begonia collection or make a foundation stock for starting one.

SEEDS: Per Pkt. $2.50; 3 pkts. $6.00

PLANT NOW for house plants next fall and winter.

GESNERIAS OF INTEREST

Included in this family are many varieties of much interest and value to the gardener with the small greenhouse or flower window who likes to garden indoors the year round. Seeds of many members of this family have not been easily obtainable but we have set out to develop an extensive line of them as a regular part of our Harrold's Pedigreed Strain line of Specialties.

AFRICAN VIOLET SEEDS

Seeds of this popular house plant has not been too readily available and we are able to offer 3 strains. They may be planted over a rather wide period of the year and come into bloom in from 8 to 10 months from seed. Aside from the interest of culturing them from seed it is also from this type of culture that new and different varieties are most apt to be produced. New crop seeds will be in shortly but orders should be made now to obtain stock from the supply that will be limited this year.

IONANTHA HYBRIDS: A fine group of dark blue shades. PRICE: Packet of about 100 seeds $1.50.

BLUE FAIRY TALE: Very free flowering, fast growing purple blue of rather uniform shade. PRICE: Packet about 100 seeds, $2.00.

HYBRIDA MIXTURE: These are seeds from a top quality collection of all colors including many latest named varieties. The one most apt to produce new and unusual shades. PRICE: Packet about 100 seeds, $3.00.

CAPE PRIMROSES - STREPTOCARPUS

These belong to the Gesneris family the same as Gloxinia and African violets so that to a great extent the growing conditions required are somewhat similar. Flowers are large, fringed trumpets 4 to 5 inches across in a bright array of colors including red, pink, blue, lilac and white. For pot plants sow from April to Dec. Plants are stemless with broad, luxuriant, basal leaves. Easily grown in a cool greenhouse or flower window but require a bit more room than Gloxinia.

color most!

These are most interesting and desirable for home planting and you will enjoy them very much. We listed them last year, the first time in several years, and the active interest shown by our gardening customers would indicate that their popularity is again on the increase. Culture is so near that of Tuberous Begonias and Gloxinias that you'll have no difficulty culturing them together. The foliage of all varieties offered here is brilliant and they have been selected for their ease of culture, free leafing growth and adaptability to both pot and outside culture. Try a few this year.

VARIETY	PRICE PER EACH	3	6
MARIE MOIR: Medium tall, green-white with dark green ribs. Leaf is flecked with small pigeon-blood spots.	$.85	$2.25	$4.00
VIVIAN LEE: Medium low growing and a good leafer. Medium green ground splashed with deep pink.	.85	2.25	4.00
HORTULIANA: An outstanding color. Deep red with variable green border that's narrow. Low and vigorous.	.85	2.25	4.00
CANDIDUM: The leading white variety with best habit. White ground with green ribs and veins.	.90	2.50	4.50
MACAYBA: Medium tall, strong grower. Color puts it in a class by itself. White marbled with garnet-red and bright scarlet ribs.	.90	2.50	4.50
SEAGULL: Medium green with cream-white fern pattern. Low growing and very leafy.	.80	2.10	3.90
MRS. F. SANDERS: Large leaves vigorous variety. Color almost indescribable. A combination of green, pink and white with deep maroon ribs.	.90	2.50	4.50
JESSIE THAYER: An excellent pot variety. Ground is green marbled with white, overlaid with pink fern pattern in center. Dark red ribs.	.85	2.25	4.00
DR. GROOVER: A striking multi-color that is hard to describe. It's color blend is like the Calico Car (57 kinds). General tone is olive-pink.	.90	2.50	4.50
FANNIE MUNSON: Generally considered one of the most beautiful. Good plant habit and colors are bright pink with light green trim, red ribs netted all over with rose.	.90	2.50	4.50
FINEST MIXTURE: Not necessarily the above varieties but a very good blend of fine colors.	.75	2.00	3.80
COLLECTION: One tuber each of the above ten varieties all labeled for $7.35 postpaid.

Order these now while crop is in good supply. Shipping begins in March and all orders are booked and shipped in sequence of arrival in our warehouse.
